

Caustic Criticism of Lack of Patriotism and of Respect for Religious Observances

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE.

DEAR EDITOR:

These days we hear more of war talk than anything else among groups of people, but especially among men lounging on our street corners. (And the best of men will stop to talk occasionally!) Many of them argue for war and rail against an especially level-headed executive for steering the Ship of State away from the War Zone. These brave and warlike citizens of ours ascend to flights of oratory, lamenting over the decadence of patriotism and the martial spirit of our country.

If all this eloquence was to be believed, one would think that, on our own day, the Fourth of July, this patriotism would express itself at no other time. But it is the sad and lamentable fact that this was not so.

I attended the Fourth of July celebration at a certain town in our happy valley where quite a crowd was assembled to listen to a very interesting program. During the invocation, about half the men present took off their hats. I noticed in particular a group of boys near where I stood who first shamefacedly lifted their hats, and then, on glancing around, they saw many others older than themselves who stood covered. They were undecided which to do, and finally left rather than run the risk of ridicule for what they felt to be the right thing. A nice example, fathers, to your own and other people's sons! Is the idea of decent respect for religious observances dying out completely?

During the oration, as usual on the outskirts of such a crowd, there was scuffling, talking and laughing which made it almost impossible to hear at times. Is it not possible for the modern mother to teach her sons, and daughters, too, some decent respect for the privilege of other people? Perhaps our valley clubs would do well to turn a little thought in that direction!

But the thing that to me seemed most unforgivable on that day on which was the fact that during Ford's speech the "Star Spangled Banner" which was rendered as a $15,000,000 was a mere handful of their machine gun uncovered and not on that day, ready seated, rose to nounce that was astounding, because biles were, and that song played and year, each and every place and difmark times, and never did I see Bush.

it accorded so little honor or even interest as it did at this celebration. I have sat in the Greek Theatre, at Berkeley, when it was crowded to its limit, and seen every seat empty and every man bare-headed while the band played "The Star Spangled Banner!"

Was it lack of patriotism or of education which caused the lack of response? I am sure there were many present that would earnestly avow the deepest patriotism, and I know that there were present both men and women of real education and refinement. The names of some would surprise everyone.

It seems unbelievable! I cannot conceive how such a crowd could hear our national tune through without a thrill as of an electric current passing through it. But there they stood, and sat, and I'm sure the predominant thought was, how soon lunch could be obtained!

Oh, voluble gentlemen! where is your much vaunted patriotism and nationalism that it failed to be aroused at the singing of our grandest martial hymn?

Good Editor, I hope you print this, for I would like some of these prominent men and educated women to know what one humble witness, who is much more patriotic than educated, thought of the great omissions of an otherwise excellent celebration. It may set them thinking ere the next Fourth of July comes around. Who knows?

AN EYE WITNESS.
GLEN ELLEN, CAL.

NEW CLEANING AND PRESSING WORKS

Edward W. (better known to his friends as "Wayne") Batchelor has established "The Meadow Cleaning and Pressing Works," opposite the Fetter's Hot Springs, and expresses himself as more than gratified at the large amount of trade accorded him. However, that is entirely due, as a matter of fact, to Wayne's fine workmanship. He thoroughly understands all branches of the work, at one time holding a position with J. B. Parent in this city. The young man is giving splendid satisfaction and beyond a doubt his trade will continue to flourish. Those who wish to have cleaning, pressing or dyeing should give this Sonoma boy a trial.

CLEVER WORK OF BOYES' SPRINGS WIN BERT GALE AID TO SHERIFF

Valuable assistance was rendered the county officers, Tuesday, and Sheriff Smith was successful in apprehending four suspected automobile thieves as the result of very clever detective work on the part of Bert Gale of El Verano.

Automobile thieves have been working the bay districts recently, and Sheriff Smith had been notified to be on the lookout for the quartet, supposed to be headed for Petaluma in a machine confiscated in San Francisco.

The car had been wrecked and abandoned by the young men near Petaluma, and they came to this valley. During the enforced absence of Deputy Sheriff Murray, Mr. Gale (who had been provided with their descriptions) was to do some detective work in an effort to locate the suspects.

From Mr. Gale, we learn that he spent the day quietly motoring around the valley, keenly on the alert. His vigilance was rewarded by his "sighting" two of the men, whom he managed to engage in conversation by asking to purchase the auto robe, which they had in possession. The sale of a robe worth $15.00 for $1.50 to Mr. Gale confirmed his suspicions, and he conferred with Deputy James Modini, who took the men into custody and notified the sheriff's office.

During the interim, Messrs. Gale and Modini succeeded in securing from their prisoners information that their two pals were en route for other parts, via Schellville box cars. Later, they were apprehended at Suisun by Sheriff Smith.

Bert Gale has been highly commended on his ability as a sleuth, and the friends of Deputy Modini predict him a future Sheriff of Sonoma County.

LOUIS PICETTI LOSES VALUABLE HOUND

Louis Picetti's valuable, thoroughbred deer hound was poisoned last Sunday morning. Accompanied by Theo. Keiser, Louis had taken the animal to the Lovell Valley for training, preparatory to his annual hunting trip next month. The dog had been successfully taught the trick of retrieving game, and left to rest or wander at will for a time, he picked up the poisoned food which caused his death.

BOYES' SPRINGS WIN VICTORY OVER BLOOMFIELD

Account of the disbandment of the Sonoma Ball Club, the loyal patrons of the national pastime now journey each Sunday afternoon to the Boyes' Springs diamond.

When the Sonoma team broke up, Ruby Marks, the manager of the Boyes' Springs' nine, signed a few of our stars to play for him, namely, Ralph Evans, "Dutch" Andrieux, Pete Boccioni, and our own Jack Poulson for umpire. The latter has officiated at most of the games this season, and his manner of conducting and ruling ball teams was particularly noticeable and satisfactory.

Last Sunday, the Bloomfield nine journeyed to Boyes' Springs to play ball. Pete Boccioni on the mound had the Bloomfield boys at his mercy. He was also given excellent support by his team-mates.

Outside of the first inning, when Boyes scored five runs, the game was well contested. The Bloomfield nine deserve a lot of credit for their determined spirit, which was manifest throughout the entire game. They are also game losers and had no alibis after the contest. The final score was 9 to 5 in favor of Boyes.

A return game with Bloomfield has been arranged by Manager Marks for Sunday, July 25th.

Tomorrow afternoon, Boyes is scheduled to play the Napa nine. A good game is expected, and those who are desirous of seeing some of our local lads in Boyes uniforms, are urged to attend.

RULINGS OF JUDGE SEAWELL AFFIRMED

The Appellate Court of the First District affirmed the rulings of Judge Emmet Seawell in the suit of Polloni vs. Ryland and the Sonoma Valley Light & Power Company.

Readers of the Index-Tribune are familiar with the action, which was a suit for damages instituted by Polloni after the death of his wife by the handling of a live electric wire, which had become displaced by a falling tree during a severe storm a few years ago. A jury trial resulted in a verdict for the defendants, who were represented by Attorney Rolfe L. Thompson of Santa Rosa.

An appeal was taken, with the result above stated.

DRUM CORPS' THIRD ANNUAL PICNIC TOMORROW

Tomorrow (Sunday), July 18th, the people of Sonoma Valley will have an opportunity of enjoying another picnic at Oak Grove Villa. It will be given by Sonoma Drum Corps, No. 111, Native Sons of the Golden West, and, to quote a representative of the organization, "This picnic will be the very best in every way ever given by the drummer boys. We are arranging a day of events and jollity such as has never been excelled in this valley, and which those who attend will not soon forget."

This declaration makes "assurance doubly sure," of course, but is hardly necessary, as the preceding annual picnics given by the Drum Corps were such perfect successes that expectations are most sanguine for another well managed and nicely conducted day of outdoor sports.

Quite naturally, dancing will be an important feature, for which music is to be furnished by the Sonoma Valley Band. From 12 m. until 12 p. m. those who enjoy dancing will be indulged.

As usual, Mine Host and Mrs. Henry Koerner will be on hand to assist in dispensing the hospitality characteristic of Oak Grove.

The committees in charge of the event are as follows:

Advertising—James A. Modini, Bert Kerner.

Gate—Joseph Keiser, Albert Groskopf, Louis Picetti.

Prizes, Games and Races—Alfred Warriner, Fred Helberg.

Music—Fred Hansen, Will Helberg.

Refreshments—Harry Quartaroli, James Modini.

Wheel of Fortune—Leonard Thomas, George Goess, Bert Kerner, Henry Anselmi.

Injured Shoulder

On Monday last, Dr. Irving C. Gobar was summoned to Caliente to attend John Murphy, who had badly sprained his left shoulder while repairing a tank house on his property. The injured man, who bought a farm at Caliente about two years ago, coming here from Vallejo, is resting comfortably.

Sudden Death

A. J. LeFortune, who came to the Sonoma Valley for his health, was found dead in his apartment at Caliente Villa, Tuesday morning. An autopsy, conducted by Dr. W. B. Hays and Undertaker H. F. Bates disclosed death as having resulted from tuberculosis.

Arrangements in Progress Indicate 1915 Exhibit of Apples Will Be Best Yet Shown in Sebastopol

In the past Sebastopol has held five annual Gravenstein Apple Shows, beginning in 1910. Now, in 1915, preparations are being made to hold the sixth on a much grander scale than heretofore.

Without disparagement to preceding Gravenstein Apple Shows, it may be said that the one now in course of preparation, under leadership of the efficient secretary of the Sebastopol Gravenstein Apple Show Association, J. P. Kelly, will eclipse them all in size, variety and general magnificence.

To make use of a time-worn phrase, "no stone is being left unturned" by either Mr. Kelly or the gentlemen laboring with him to achieve this end.

Of course, it is too far in advance of the time set for holding the show to speak definitely of the many new features now contemplated. Therefore, it must suffice to state that there will be many unique and many of them startling. It is planned to have the concessions of a high order, and out of the usual in their nature. In a word, as already intimated, it is the design of the association to have the Sixth Annual Apple Show, beginning August 14th and ending on the 22nd, by far the best ever.

In this connection, it may also be stated that through its secretary, Julius Alexander, the Healdsburg Chamber of Commerce has applied for double the space it has heretofore taken in which to display the resources of that section. They are arranging with much care to have a splendid exhibition of the varied products of that locality, beautifully placed.

The forthcoming show also has the hearty commendation and promised co-operation of M. J. Galaway, a prominent nurseryman and farmer of the upper Russian River Valley, who, in a letter to Mr. Kelly, speaks of the enterprise in the warmest words of praise, and a score or more of others that might be mentioned, but space forbids at this time.

To achieve this laudable purpose, the association earnestly asks all interested in the upbuilding of this most favored section of Sonoma county to lend a helping hand, to the extent of their ability.

The prize list will be ready for distribution before long. Many cups and cash donations have been received and altogether the prize offerings will be greater than ever.

One of the latest additions to the prize list is one hundred dollars in cash, sent by the California Pine Box Company of San Francisco.

JOHN PICETTI'S AUTO DESTROYED BY FIRE

John F. Picetti, of the Sonoma Valley Furniture Company, had the misfortune to have his fire $2200-Hudson Touring Car destroyed by fire, Monday.

The accident occurred while the young man was on his homeward way in the evening. He had stopped to remedy a puncture and the excessive gas generated as the result of gasoline leakage caused the conflagration. Despite the best efforts of Mr. Picetti, the work of destruction was complete.

The machine was insured for $800, through the agency of Geo. W. Read.

Jim Maffei sympathizes with Jack, of course, but expressed surprise that the accident hadn't happened before. "That new suit of Jack's is 'hot' enough to even make Old Sol turn a backward somersault behind a cloud," declared Jim. "Anyhow," commented Jim, "Jack should drive an 1916 Overland."

ELECTRIC SIGNS TO BE INSTALLED

From General Superintendent B. A. Evans of the California Telephone and Lighting Company, who was looking after the company's interests here, Wednesday, we learn that the new electric signs ordered from the Federal Sign Company, San Francisco, are completed and will be placed in position by August 1st.

Of the six signs ordered, one is to adorn the Fetter's Springs Hotel, another the Agua Caliente Springs Club House, and the rest will advertise the location of the Clements Grill, Lutgen's Ice Cream Parlor, the Sonoma Valley Furniture Company, and the local telephone office.

This is a stroke of enterprise on the part of the California Telephone and Lighting Company very highly commendable, and the installation of the electric annunciators will give a decided metropolitan appearance to the places of business sufficiently up-to-date and progressive to purchase them. To quote general Superintendent "Bob" Evans, "They're some signs, too!"

Women Organize "Buy-at-Home League."

A quite novel, though none the less effective scheme to encourage home buying was inaugurated and carried to a successful issue by the women of Burbotton, Ohio, a small city within easy trolley ride of Cleveland. And thereby hangs a tale.

A Civic Beauty League had been organized by the leading women of the city, and to carry out its purpose, they appealed to the business men of the town for financial aid, never thinking that for so worthy a cause there would be any reluctance on the part of the merchants to subscribe.

As it so happened, the two or three women most active in promoting the League were very much given to running to Cleveland to buy a large share of their clothing, hats, house furnishings, etc., and when the matter came up before the Business Men's Association for endorsement several of the merchants were of the opinion that this would be a rare opportunity to give these women a well-merited rebuke. After some discussion it was decided to appoint a committee to meet with the ladies and explain to them that owing to poor business conditions caused by so much money being spent out of town, it would be impossible for the merchants to help them at that time. Though the ensuing conference between the committee and the ladies was held many years ago, the members of that committee still retain very vivid memories of that occasion—mostly on the part of the women—the committeemen retired with as much grace as they could, but later developments proved their martyrdom had not been in vain.

Being whole souled, sensible American women, the ladies readily saw the force of the arguments presented by the business men, with the result that it was but a few days until their Beauty League was converted into a "Buy-at-Home" Club, composed of only women and working independently of the merchants, though of course the money necessary to conduct the campaign was solicited, and needless to say quite willingly subscribed, from the business interests of the city.

Through the medium of the local newspapers, the women conducted a prize contest for the best ten reasons why people should buy from home merchants, and was open only to contestants who were not connected in any way with local enterprises. As it was desired to create as much interest as possible in the contest, the prizes offered were very substantial, and so arranged that everyone sending in an article could almost feel sure of winning something.

The results were more than satisfactory. Hardly a block in the city but contained one or more of the prize-winners. The following article won the grand prize of $250 and with the other prize articles, was prepared in attractive pamphlet form and placed in the hands of every resident of the city:

First: The first and foremost reason why we should patronize our home merchants is because a careful comparison of prices and values will show that on nearly everything we can save money by doing so.

Second: Because the merchandise sold by our home merchants is of standard quality and workmanship, and its wearing qualities are backed not only by them but also by the factories that make them.

Third: Because we can always see and inspect an article before we give our money for it.

Fourth: Because if we are dissatisfied with an article, it is easy and convenient to either exchange it for something suitable or get our money back. We don't have to go to the bother of writing a letter and packing it for shipment, and take another chance on its getting lost or broken.

Fifth: Because when we buy from our home merchant, he gives us the benefit of his experience and knowledge if we are in doubt or uncertain as to just what we need. This advice is very valuable and rarely appreciated.

Sixth: Because if we spend our money with our home merchant when we have got the cash, he gets to know us, and if we get hard up he will give us credit, which we cannot get from distant concerns.

Seventh: Because about thirty cents of every dollar that is spent here at home stays here and is distributed to the rest of us in the way of wages, rent, interest, doctor bills, lawyer fees, taxes, and the purchase of the necessities of life for the merchant and his clerks. Only a small fraction of it goes to swell the merchant's private bank account.

Eighth: Because our home merchants employ our sons and our daughters and our friends. The amount of patronage given our stores will regulate not only the number of people employed, but the scale of wages paid as well.

Ninth: Because the more business that is done here the faster and bigger our town will grow, thus increasing the value of our property and the farms of the surrounding country.

Tenth: Because our merchants want our trade tomorrow as well as today, and they are always going to give us a square deal to get it and keep it.

VINEBURG

Henry Seipp, the well-known orchardist, was a visitor to Vineburg on Sunday.

The Misses Mary Batto and Norma Figone are on a visit to relatives in the Bay City.

Fred Batto transacted business in San Francisco, Wednesday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Emily.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bundschu, and Carl Dreesel and son Otto were on the afternoon train, on Tuesday to the Exposition City.

The many friends of John Picetti are very sorry at the destruction by fire of his handsome touring car, but are all glad that genial Jack was not injured.

A. W. Lehrke spent the weekend at his Vineburg home, and on Monday departed for his Mendocino County ranch. He will be absent several weeks.

Fruit picking is now well under way and a great many hands are being employed in the orchards in this vicinity, and a large amount of fruit is being shipped.

"Seven noble red men," of this vicinity, took a flying trip to San Rafael, one evening recently, but the seven "braves" landed in San Francisco "copy right secured."

Marshal E. Forni, and our local blacksmith, Mr. Anderson, motored through the northern part of the county on Sunday last, and say that Sonoma County has some land "some land" is right.

A number of prominent growers met on Tuesday evening to discuss the question of canning a part of the coming crop. Mr. Van Gundy, of Buena Vista, was the principal speaker.

From the 6th to the 12th of this month, July, nine carloads of grain, feed, oil, coal and general merchandise was unloaded at Batto's Spur. And it was not a busy week, either.

On Saturday evening last, a number of prominent citizens of Vallejo motored to Vineburg and paid their respects to Manager Howard Brown at New Vineburg Inn. After pleasantly spending a few hours in music, conversation, etc., an elaborate banquet was served at midnight, covers being laid for fifteen. Vineburg is getting to be quite a social center.

Miss Adele Andrieux, chief book-keeper and cashier for John Batto & Sons for a number of years, accompanied by her niece, Miss Louise Batto, departed on an annual vacation trip, Sunday last. During their absence, they will be guests of relatives and friends in the bay counties. The many friends of the popular young ladies wish them a pleasant trip and safe return.

Joseph Haydon, mayor of Verano, accompanied by a well-known entertainer of "The Gables," were guests at New Vineburg Inn, Tuesday evening. Twenty years ago, Joe Haydon was one of the brightest stars in negro minstrelsy, and the composer of such famous songs as "A Hot Time in the Old Town," "My Coal Black Lady," "I Need a Girl," and others. Mr. Haydon retired from the stage some years ago.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Karl Pfiffel, alias Karl Schilling, for the passing of a fictitious check of $52 to Mrs. J. A. Aquistopace of Agua Caliente, on June 22nd. The check was not presented for payment until July 8th, when it would be worthless.

PERSONAL, SOCIAL, FRATERNAL AND GENERAL NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Ernest Feige (nee Miss Jennie Poulson) came up from San Francisco, Wednesday evening, for a several days' visit with home folks.

Among the many July visitors in the Sonoma Valley were Mrs. O. B. Leforgey and son, of San Francisco, who were guests at the home of the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. DePlace.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ross motored over from Petaluma, Tuesday evening, and while here were guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Simmons. Mrs. Simmons, by-the-way, returned Monday evening from San Francisco, to which point she accompanied her daughter, Miss Gladys, on the departure of the steamer for La Jolla.

Truly, Sonoma is a strong magnet for one by one, from time to time, those who had changed their place of residence drift back to their former home. Peter Keil is the latest wanderer to return, and is gladly welcomed by his innumerable town and valley friends. Peter lived in Oakland during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Campbell had the pleasure of entertaining their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hess, of San Francisco. The gentlemen and lady have been driving through Napa and Sonoma Counties, arriving in this valley from St. Helena, Friday. They enjoyed a sojourn at Fetter's Hot Springs during their stay.

Mrs. Grace Granice was one of a party of pleasure-seekers to enjoy over July Fourth at McCray's beautiful summering place, "The Old Homestead," near Cloverdale. Others in the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Birdsall, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stalder, and Mr. and Mrs. Hinkelbein, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stahl and daughter Frieda, Mesdames Aden, Irving McInnis, John and Harry Aden, all of Vallejo.

Right Rev. Wm. Hall Moreland, of Sacramento, administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of children and several grown persons, eleven in all, at Trinity Episcopal Church, Sunday morning. Among those upon whom the impressive rite was conferred was a class of four girls, who had been under the zealous instruction of Mrs. G. H. Hotz since the beginning of their religious training. Bishop Moreland preached an eloquent sermon, and the song service was appropriately beautiful.

Mrs. Fernando Maldonado, of Boyes' Springs, was hostess to a party of friends on a motor trip to Healdsburg, Friday of last week. The skilled hand of Joe Andrieux guided the wheel of the big Studebaker.

Mrs. Ralph Hotz was appointed a member of the Board of Library Trustees by Mayor Wm. Von Hacht, Wednesday. The appointment is certainly well placed. Mrs. Hotz is an earnest reader and patron of the library and will take a deep interest in its welfare. She succeeds S. P. Woodworth.

O. L. Hose, "big chief" of the repertorial and typographical staff of our esteemed contemporary, the Sonoma Valley Expositor, closed up shop, Saturday last, and spent the week-end sight-seeing at the Exposition. Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, Reporter Hose entertained his brother, J. F. Hose of the metropolis.

Mrs. Frederick T. Duhring and sons, Frederick, Jr., John and Stephen, are to go to San Francisco, today, where they expect to spend several weeks "doing the Exposition." Mrs. E. T. Sterns (mother to Mrs. Duhring) also departed this week for a recreation trip of a month's duration, to be spent for the most part in the Bay City.

The Index-Tribune received an appreciated call, Monday, from Captain James Landy, of Woodward, San Joaquin County, who had been sojourning at Boyes' Springs. Captain Landy is well and favorably known to old-time Sonomaites, as he was a resident here twenty years ago. "Quite well I remember," said the gentleman, smiling reminiscently, "of the Fridays in the long ago when I used to come into this office and turn that old Washington hand-press over in the corner, so that the Index would 'get out early,' and Editor Granice could go fishing on Saturday. I enjoy reading the news of 'Twenty Years Ago in Old Sonoma,' and have in my possession many old copies of the Index." Captain Landy recalled the July foot races run twenty years ago, on which occasion he carried off the gold locket as being the fastest 150-yard sprinter in the contest. Captain Landy is one of those jovial, whole-souled temperaments whose greetings are pleasant to receive and which create responsive brightness.

Frank Cassidy, of Benicia, was here for a week-end visit with his wife, who with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Dwyer, is spending a month in Sonoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton McGimsey and family are here from Isleton, Sacramento Valley, for several weeks' visit at the home of the gentleman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McGimsey. Friends are greatly rejoiced at the excellent health enjoyed by Mrs. Milton McGimsey.

Our well-known townsman, P. Laurezi and family were afforded the pleasure of a visit, Sunday, from Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lowry of Santa Rosa. It had been eighteen years since the gentlemen, who are old-time friends, had met. Last week the Laurezi family also had as their guests, Messrs. P. and B. Finau of San Francisco.

Raymond Castex returns to San Francisco tomorrow, after a ten days' sojourn in Sonoma, the guest of his friend, Joe McMullin. Ray, who is one of our former Sonoma boys, now holds a good position with the Royal Indemnity Insurance Company. His stay here was a source of much pleasure to his friends, as he is an exceptionally gifted pianist and graciously generous in entertaining with his fine accomplishment.

Mrs. J. A. Landsborough won the handsome sewing basket given by Mrs. Hartley W. Gottenberg on her day at home—Thursday—to the members of the Bridge-Whist Club. Masses of snowy Shasta daisies combined with graceful ferns added an artistic touch to the delightful home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Appleton, wherein their daughter entertained, giving to her associate card players an enjoyable afternoon.

Yesterday (Friday) afternoon, the Appleton home was again the social center, with Mrs. Appleton as hostess and some thirty of her lady friends as guests. Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame and Mrs. Hartley W. Gottenberg assisted their mother in entertaining. Varied pastimes, with a couple of novel, exciting contests, had been planned by these clever, original women, all of whom possess the happy faculty of being social inventive geniuses, and those who have the pleasure of enjoying their hospitality quite naturally are on the qui vive for the latest innovation in the way of entertainment.

Rev. and Mrs. T. M. Price are spending the month of July in Berkeley, where Mr. Price is availing himself of the intellectual opportunities offered by the University summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Garin and little daughter Mare were here from San Francisco, Sunday, for a day's visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Garin is the daughter of our estimable townsman, J. G. Marcy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Rhode have had the pleasure of a visit during the fortnight from the gentleman's mother, brother-in-law and sister—Mrs. Bertha Rhode and Mr. and Mrs. F. Grueber, of San Francisco. Little Miss Loraine Grueber accompanied her parents. The visitors greatly enjoyed their stay at the comfortable suburban home of their relatives.

The Misses Rose Basaglia, Nellie and Clara Peterson; Will Peterson, Henry Bartoli and Richie Rahwyler motored over to the City of Roses, Wednesday evening, to felicitate Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ives (nee Miss Anita Basaglia). These young people have been the recipients of a number of social attentions since their return from their bridal trip. On Sunday last, Mrs. A. Basaglia, of this city, entertained at a sumptuous family dinner for her new son-in-law and daughter.

The Royal Hawaiian Seranders continue to prove a fine drawing card at the Agua Caliente Springs' New Auditorium. Pleasure-seekers, especially when so cosmopolitan as in this summer-resort valley, do not so readily tire of these native musical renditions, dances, and other effects, especially when the stage settings are so fantastically unique. Sonoma's par excellence drummer and his superior rag time musicians play "syncopated tunes" until enthusiastic dancers are forced through sheer weariness to desist. The big playhouse is to be further embellished by the installation of a set of handsome interior scenery, which has just been completed by Painter and Decorator H. Beyers, and is certainly a "classy" piece of work. The Agua Caliente Springs is doing an extensive business just now, above the most sanguine expectations of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Richards. The big hostelry and cottages are over crowded, and the same condition prevails daily at the baths.

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomson were among other prominent Sonoma Valley residents sight-seeing at the Exposition Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Green and daughter, Miss Florence, are now luxuriating in a handsome touring car of their own—an 1916 Overland—purchased through Nichelini & Maffei, local agents, this week. Sonoma Valley families are numerous represented among the ranks of autoists.

Paul Norrison, of San Diego, is sojourning in El Verano with his brother Henry, who has given his guest a most pleasurable time motoring to all points of interest in the valley. The visitor is delighted with our climate and scenic grandeur. Before returning to San Diego, he will visit the World's Fair.

Mrs. G. H. Hotz and son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hotz, are planning to go to San Francisco, the latter part of next week "to do" the Exposition. Part of the time will be spent at Innside Inn, to permit of perfect restful enjoyment of the illuminations. Mrs. Ralph Hotz will also visit her sister, Mrs. Calderwood, in the Bay City.

Family friends were deeply sympathetic, Saturday last, with the pretty, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Monahan, of Glen Ellen. While playing, the little girl fell from a coal oil can, and although such a short distance, her right arm was fractured. The child was brought to town and given surgical treatment by Dr. A. M. Thomson.

Sonoma Valley appreciates the fitting compliment paid Attorney Robert A. Poppe by the Board of Managers of the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge at their meeting on Wednesday of this week. The cottage for female epileptics at the Home, authorized by the Legislature in 1913, has been completed by Contractor Cerebigno, and was named "The Robert A. Poppe Cottage" to commemorate the long service on the Board of Managers of their present president. The necessary furniture and equipment is now being put in, and on August 1st, "The Robert A. Poppe Cottage" will be occupied by sixty epileptic girls and five attendants. The appropriation for the building and equipment was $19,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Murphy, of Alameda, enjoyed a Saturday-to-Monday visit with the gentleman's mother and sister, Mrs. M. and Miss Florence Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Appleton are entertaining their lovely little granddaughter, Miss Lois Appleton, of Berkeley. Lois is enjoying riding her spirited pony to her heart's content, under the chaperonage of her aunt, Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame, who is also an enthusiastic and skilled equestrian.

Arthur Drake was a week-end visitor in Sonoma, a guest at the George Engler home. Arthur has a host of friends here—made during his years' association with the California Telephone and Lighting Company—who are always glad to greet him. The young man has been managing the family farm since the demise of his father.

Miss Myrtle and Master Russell Richards returned, last week to the home of their aunt, Mrs. Grace I. Granice, from a sojourn in San Francisco with their mother and grandmother, Mesdames Jos. Richards and Sarah E. Munck. The visit of the young people gave much pleasure to their little sister Grace, who lies ill in St. Luke's Hospital.

Sonoma Valley in general is very deeply regretful at the removal from our midst of the Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, and his resignation as rector of Trinity Episcopal Church. Rev. Oehlhoff has been appointed vicar of the Canon Kip Mission, in San Francisco, under Bishop Nichols, and departed for his new field of labor, Monday afternoon. Settlement work, with opportunities so expansive, appeals strongly to Mr. Oehlhoff, and his rare understanding of human nature and keen perceptiveness are happy faculties which admirably qualify this ambitious young clergyman to be a strong link in the chain of workers in the hoped-for eternal Brotherhood of Man. Rev. Terrill Holt, who was recently graduated from the Episcopal Divinity College, San Francisco, has accepted the rectorship of Trinity Episcopal Church, to enter on his religious work in our city in August, at the close of the annual vacation of the Church. While Rev. Oehlhoff will be sincerely missed from our circles, yet his friends rejoice in his broader opportunities, and hope for the realization of his highest aspirations. His successor, we trust, will enjoy his duties and associates in the our town and valley.

Miss Hazel Gies is expected to arrive in Sonoma from San Francisco, this evening, to be a guest, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Green.

Mrs. J. A. Kinsella returned, Thursday evening, from the visit of a fortnight with her parents in San Rafael. While away, Mrs. Kinsella enjoyed a number of Exposition sight-seeing trips.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ermattinger, of Boyes' Springs, are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the advent of a fine baby daughter, Friday of last week. Mother and babe are doing well at the Broadway Sanitarium, under the care of Dr. W. B. Hays.

Announcements have been issued by Captain and Mrs. Elias Howard Parsons of the marriage of their daughter, Belle Raynar, to Johann Friedrich Erdmann Clewe, on Wednesday, July 14th, at Pasadena. Mr. Clewe—the son of Mrs. M. Clewe of this city—belongs to the Sonoma Valley, and his wide circle of friends include those of earliest childhood. He was graduated from the Sonoma Valley Union High School in '97, and continued his course of study until he ranked among the leading educators of the State. At the present time, Mr. Clewe is teacher in one of the Los Angeles High Schools. The cordial best wishes of friends throughout California are extended the newly-wedded couple for happiness and prosperity.

"Steve" Douglas is decidedly the "man of the hour" at the Boyes Theatre. Mr. Douglas is the fine violinist, of whom we have told you before in these columns, and is a prime factor in the thronging of the popular play house several nights each week. The vaudevilles of Wednesday and Thursday nights are splendid attractions, too. Those of this week were exceptionally so. Amusement Manager Landers Stevens promises extra big nights next week, but it seems to us that we're being having big nights right along. The popular resort is entertaining a large number of guests, considerably more than had been expected, so Dr. A. L. Parramore informs us. "The season is not as good as that of last year," said the doctor, "but then, we did not look for it to be so, owing to the Fair. We are well satisfied. We are highly gratified, too, at the appreciation and extensive patronage accorded our shows. It's an incentive to us to continue to secure good talent."

CATTLE ON THE RUN

for a living all the time cannot be expected to make sweet, tender meat. The cattle from which we get our choice meat are the stall-fed, grain fattened kind that produce the best meat on earth. Try us with an order for next Sunday's meat. Then all the family will be home to enjoy the treat, which will not cost you a cent more than usual.

S. B. LEWIS

Some "Twenty Years Ago" in Old Sonoma

(FROM THE SONOMA INDEX-TRIBUNE OF JULY 20, 1895.)

Capt. Read of the Sonoma Club had his fine wheel badly wrecked Saturday morning. He was riding leisurely along near Weyl's corner when he was suddenly confronted by two horses attached to Castagnasso's vegetable wagon. The fiery steeds crowded him to the edge of the sidewalk and he flopped over.

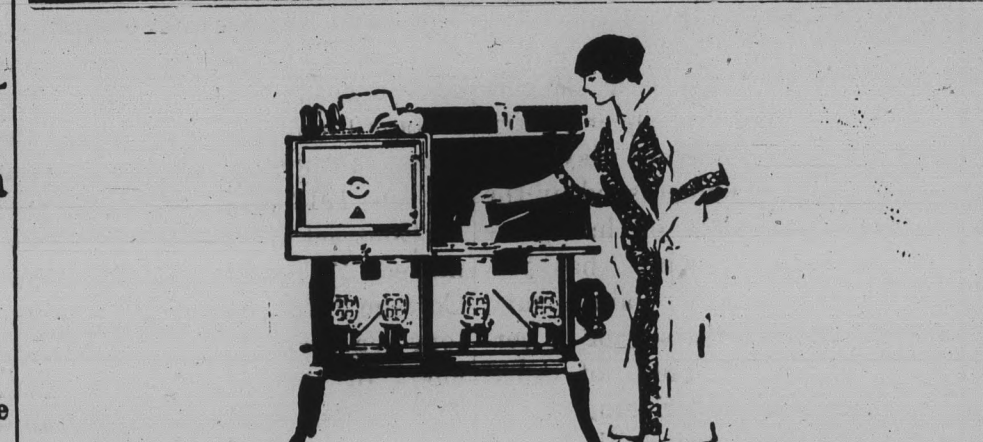

"Morning Glory Villa," the home of Cecelia and Julie Granice, was the scene of a most enjoyable surprise party tendered them by their many friends on Tuesday evening. On the arrival of the young guests, the large parlors were given over to their exclusive use, where they played various games much to the enjoyment of all. The following were present: Doris Clewe, Edna Richmond, Tot Appleton, Leo Stevenot, Lester Richmond, Theo Bates, Elena Roedel, Berton Lawrence, Grace Champlin, Roderick Stevenot, Bertie Smith, Steve Akers, Zarita Howe, Cecelia Granice, Cora Manuel, Clarence Cheney, Archie Stevenot, Julie Granice, Willie Chase.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Supervisors the following motion in regard to county maps was adopted:

"It appearing to this Board that the bid of Preston R. Davis is the best and lowest bid for the contract of making the county maps, I move that the contract be awarded to Preston R. Davis and that he file with the County Clerk a good and sufficient bond within ten days of the full amount of his bid, to perform the work in a good and workmanlike manner and in compliance with the conditions of his contract and requirements of this order. The form and style of the maps and plat books with index to be the same selected by the Board, including an index book with each map and a general index of the entire system, with school district maps of portfolio form; for the sum of $12,698."

SUMMER SPRAY IS RECOMMENDED FOR TREES

The time for the application of arsenical sprays for the control of the codling moth is at hand and the work should commence as near the 15th of July as possible. Without question the most important of all sprays for the control of this worm occurs just as the blossoms fall, and is known as the calyx spray. The reason for this is that by far the greatest percentage of worms of the first generation seek to enter the apple by the blossom end through the calyx, and by filling this cavity with poison you are sure of preventing injury by the worms. The July, or summer spray, bears the same relation to the second generation of worms as does this calyx spray to the first. The worms of the second generation hatch from eggs laid either on the apple or leaves adjoining; the young worm commences eating almost immediately and usually enters the side of the apple, generally, where two apples touch; or where a leaf touches an apple. This summer application is meant to form a covering of poison protecting the apple so that a worm feeding on the outer skin or leaf hairs is killed before entering and damaging the fruit. It is seen at a glance that the more perfect this covering of poison is, the more certain you are to prevent injury by the worm. The problem then is to so spread the arsenicals over the surface of the leaves and apples that no vulnerable spot remains, and to do this requires care and skill in spraying, so that any mechanical aid in the work makes for a more efficient application, and, consequently, cleaner apples.

We advise the use of a spreader for the arsenical, and believe flour paste to be the best ingredient found thus far, although a half pound of glue or an equivalent amount of liquid glue added to a hundred gallons of spray will aid materially. The spray should be applied at good pressure, not less than 200 pounds, and in such manner as to hit at least all the apples and surrounding leaves. A fine mist spray will not prove as effective as a good driving spray. For all purposes we favor an angle nozzle, and the Friend angle drive gives the best success of any we have used or seen.

As to ingredients, we recommend the following combination formula, which will not only reach the worms but will help in the control of powdery mildew, scab, and any possible red spider or brown mites which might chance to be present. On account of adverse weather conditions, we find these diseases more prevalent than usual, and, therefore, advise the use of this combination:

- Flour paste (commercial), 6 pounds, or homemade 3 pounds.
- Sulphur paste (atomic or milled), 8-10 pounds.
- Arsenate of lead (paste) 5 pounds.

Water to make a hundred gallons (100 gallons).

Flour paste may be made as follows: Sift carefully 3 pounds pounds of flour. Mix to a thin smooth batter in cold water. Thicken by adding boiling water and boil ten minutes, preferably in a double boiler. When nearly done add a bar of Ivory soap dissolved in hot water. One-fourth pound glue may be substituted for the soap.
